

APPLICATION FOR BAIL IS GRANTED

Judge G. H. Brown Jr., Delivers the Decision in the Habeas Corpus Case at Wilson.

JUDGE BROWN'S REASONS

The Evidence Shows Clearly a Conspiracy to do an Unlawful Act, But Not to Kill, in Which Death Ensued.

The six prisoners indicted for the murder of Percy Jones at Wilson have been admitted to bail by Judge Brown in the sum of $5,000 each—only two, Piver and Barnes have given bond.

Wilson, N. C., June 3.—Judge Brown has rendered his decision in the case of J. B. Piver, W. H. Rich, Gilbert Ward, John Allen, W. W. Barnes and George Whitley, who were indicted for the murder of Percy Jones on the night of May 13th, and who were granted a hearing on application for a writ of habeas corpus. The prisoners are admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000 each. The decision follows:

Wilson, N. C., June 3.—Judge Brown has rendered his decision in the case of J. B. Piver, W. H. Rich, Gilbert Ward, John Allen, W. W. Barnes and George Whitley, who were indicted for the murder of Percy Jones on the night of May 13th, and who were granted a hearing on application for a writ of habeas corpus. The prisoners are admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000 each. The decision follows:

The above named prisoners were brought before me in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus at Wilson and applied for bail. They stand indicted for the murder of one Percy Jones and there are five others included in the bill with them. These last were admitted to bail at the May term of Wilson court, four of them being acquitted by the coroner's jury, there being but little, if any, evidence implicating either of them. The six prisoners above named now ask for bail upon two grounds: First, because there is not sufficient evidence to warrant the finding of a bill for any offence second, because in any view of the evidence the crime at most is murder in the second degree which is not capital and is a bailable offence as a matter of right.

The night of a judge to bail a prisoner in all cases, without exception is declared by the supreme court in State vs. Herndon, 107 N. C., 334. Whether the judge should admit to bail in cases where the bill of indictment charges a capital felony is left to his conscience in the exercise of a sound discretion, after hearing the evidence. It is contrary to the very genius of our free institutions to punish before conviction. Therefore, bail is favored by the law where it can safely be allowed.

At the hearing all the state's witnesses were fully examined orally. The prisoners offered no testimony but rested their case solely upon the evidence offered in behalf of the State.

It appears from all the evidence that deceased was in his room about midnight of May 13th. A number of persons broke in his room and deceased fired a shot gun at them first. In the shooting which followed the deceased was killed, by whom does not appear.

An important and unbiased listener to all the evidence offered for the State must I think conclude that the purpose of the persons who broke in the room of the deceased was not to kill, but to whip Jones and drive him from the town. The premeditated purpose to murder, which might be inferred from the breaking in and the circumstances of the killing, is rebutted by the State's own evidence, introduced in this hearing.

The evidence showed clearly upon the part of the persons assailing Jones a conspiracy and purpose to do an unlawful act, in which death ensued. Prior to the act of Legislature of 1893 this was murder. Since that act a great change has been made in the law, whether for the better or for the worse is not for the courts to say. The people make the laws, the courts execute them.

Since act 1893 a conspiracy and purpose to do an unlawful act (but not to kill) in the execution of which death ensues, is so plainly declared by the supreme court in State vs. Thomas, 118 P. 1122, which is binding on me. Having carefully gone over all the evidence, I am forced to conclude that the persons who broke in Jones' room were not acting in pursuance of premeditated purpose to take his life, but only to whip him or do him bodily harm. This constitutes murder in the second degree as declared by our highest court. Murder in the second degree is a bailable offence as a matter of right and it is not in the discretion of the judge to refuse it.

It is unnecessary and harmful now to discuss the weight of the evidence connecting these prisoners with the offence. They have been indicted and must stand their trial.

As this is a serious charge brought against these prisoners, I fix the bail bonds at five thousand ($5,000) dollars each for their appearance at the next special or general term of the superior court of Wilson county, each bond to be signed by sufficient surety or sureties and to be fully justified and approved by the clerk of Wilson superior court and the formal bond to be approved by Solicitor Daniels.

As each bond is approved and filed the clerk will order the release of the prisoners from jail until further order of court.

G. H. BROWN, JR., Judge.

A large majority of our people are law-abiding, therefore how to the mandate of the courts, some though express themselves freely in adverse criticism.

Two of the prisoners, J. B. Piver, the fish dealer, and W. W. Barnes were released this afternoon, their bonds having been prepared and accepted.

It is understood that oil mill men, friends of W. T. Rich, superintendent of the oil mill, will fix his bond and that Gilbert Ward, the saloon keeper, will be aided by his friends.

It is not known as yet what aid is being secured for John Allen, the barkeeper who was shot, nor for George Whitley, the fire hose wagon driver, who was the bearer of the threatening messages to Percy Jones, the Arkansas insurance man, whose murder caused the arrests.

Hot Springs, N. C., June 4.—The State Medical Society adjourned today to meet in Raleigh next year. The annual oration delivered last night by Dr. Joseph Graham, of Raleigh, on the causation of disease was very much enjoyed by the large audience. A symposium on tuberculosis followed and was engaged in by Drs. Reynolds, Weaver, Stephens and Burroughs, all of Asheville, and Hanner, of Baltimore. Papers were read today by Drs. J. W. Long, Salisbury; T. E. Anderson, Statesville; H. H. Briggs, Asheville; K. J. F. Highsmith, Fayetteville; H. A. Royster, Raleigh; H. S. Lott, Salem. The nominating committee made its report for next year as follows: Essayist, J. B. Blount, Washington; Orator, D. A. Julian, Thomasville; Leader of Debate, J. A. Williams, Reidsville.

The meeting has been most enjoyable and profitable.

Deutschland Pulled Out of the Mud.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, June 5.—The Hamburg-American Line steamship, the Deutschland, after being stuck in the mud off the hook for nearly 24 hours, was worked free at high water late today and proceeded to sea. It took the combined efforts of seven vessels and her own powerful screws to get her into deep water. She was not injured and it is expected that she will make her average speed in crossing.

DECLINE IN CASH SHOWN

The Bank Statement Impresses Professional Operators as Threatening a Curtailment in Loans—Average Level of Prices for Stocks Lower.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, June 6.—Values in dry goods are maintained and the market generally is firmer than ever. The weeks end with buyers now willing to accept the higher level established on the majority of fabrics though buying is permeated to a large extent by conservatism. Jobbers report an indifferent demand from the local trade who are operating for immediate needs only.

NEW YORK COTTON. New York, June 6.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of one point to a decline of five points on local influences but rallied to a net gain of 2 to 5 points, largely on covering by recent sellers who were impressed by the appearance of buying orders from New Orleans. The fact that there were no cables led to conservatism, while the weather news was generally regarded as unsatisfactory. This led to some increase in the demand for the new crop positions in connection with indications of a subsiding movement. Public interest was slack.
